

Animal Feed & Feed Ingredients

Clearance of Animal Feed – Prawn Feed, Shrimp Feed, Fish Feed

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
  - a. Customs (Duly endorsed) declaration form
  - b. Import approval original from DAPH
https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en )
  - c. Original International Veterinary Health Certificate from Government Veterinary Authority (in accordance with the DAPH approval).
  - d. Country of origin (Original).
  - e. Bill of Lading/Airway Bill.
  - f. Commercial Invoice.
  - g. Packing list
  - h. Delivery order.
  - i. Raw Material Certificate.
  - j. Preventive measures for recontamination of HPAL.
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the AQ officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Physical inspection and sample collection by Animal Quarantine Officers at custom examination yard/ware house.
4. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.
- ❖ If noncompliance is observed at the point of document verification & physical inspection, the consignment will be detained including the satisfactory microbiology reports.
5. Appeal and review
6. Rejected goods

Clearance of Feed Ingredients- Meat and Bone Meal (MBM) and Fish meal

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
  - a. Customs (Duly endorsed) declaration form
  - b. Import approval original from DAPH
https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en )
  - c. Original International Veterinary Health Certificate from Government Veterinary Authority (in accordance with the DAPH approval).
  - d. Country of Origin (Original)
  - e. Commercial Invoice
  - f. Packing list
  - g. Bill of Lading
  - h. Delivery order
  - i. Fumigation certificate (Relevant only for MBM).
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the AQ officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Physical inspection and sample collection by Animal Quarantine Officers at custom examination yard/warehouse.
4. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.
- ❖ If noncompliance is observed at the point of document verification & physical inspection, the consignment will be detained.
5. Appeal and review
6. Rejected goods

Plant Origin Feed and feed Ingredients

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
  - a. Customs (Duly endorsed) declaration form.
  - b. Import approval original from DAPH
https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en ).
  - c. Country of Origin (Original).
  - d. Commercial Invoice.
  - e. Packing list
  - f. Bill of Laden,
  - g. Delivery order,
  - h. Fumigation or Phytosanitary certificate (only for plant material)
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the AQ officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.
- ❖ If noncompliance is observed at the point of document verification & physical inspection, the consignment will be detained.
4. Appeal and review
5. Rejected goods

Feed additives, Feed Supplements ect.

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
  - a. Customs (Duly endorsed) declaration form.
  - b. Import approval original from DAPH
\(https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en \).
  - c. Country of Origin (Original).
  - d. Commercial Invoice.
  - e. Packing list
  - f. Bill of Laden,
  - g. Delivery order,
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the AQ officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.
- ❖ If noncompliance is observed at the point of document verification & physical inspection, the consignment will be detained including the satisfactory microbiology reports.
4. Appeal and review
5. Rejected goods