

Day Old Chicks

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
 - a. Customs duly endorsed declaration form.
 - b. Import approval original from DAPH
(https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en#importation-of-live-poultry-poultry-products-and-poultry-by-products)
 - c. Original International Veterinary Health Certificate from Government Veterinary Authority (in accordance with the DAPH approval).
 - d. Original document of country of origin
 - e. Commercial Invoice.
 - f. Packing list
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the Animal Quarantine officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Physical Inspection by Animal Quarantine Officers and Animal Quarantine inspectors at the port of entry.
4. Samples (Cloacal Swabs, Bedding papers & Dead chicks) will be collected at the Airport
5. Animals will be subjected to quarantine for a period of 30 days and during that period animals will be subjected to testing, vaccination and treatment.
6. Samples (Serum & cloacal swabs) will be collected again at 21 days at the on farm quarantine site
7. If any noncompliance occurs during that period, the quarantine period will be extended.
8. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.