

Live Animals

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
2. Document verification and registration
 - a. Customs Duly endorsed declaration form.
 - b. Import approval original from DAPH
(https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en).
 - c. Original International Veterinary Health Certificate from Government Veterinary Authority (in accordance with the DAPH approval).
 - d. Commercial Invoice.
 - e. Packing list
 - f. Bill of Laden,
 - g. Delivery order
 - h. Test reports, Vaccination and treatment records.
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the Animal Quarantine officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
3. Physical Inspection by Animal Quarantine Officers at the port of entry.
4. Animals will be subjected to quarantine for a period of not less than 30 days except Ornamental Fish (For ornamental fish -14 days) upon arrival. During that period animals will be subjected to necessary testing, vaccination and treatment.
- 5. If any noncompliance occurs during that period, the quarantine period will be extended.
- 6. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.

Import of Live fish

1. Submit the relevant documents at the Animal Quarantine Office
 2. Document verification and registration
 - a. Customs duly endorsed declaration form.
 - b. Import approval original from DAPH
(https://www.daph.gov.lk/web/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=24&Itemid=126&lang=en)
 - c. Original International Veterinary Health Certificate from Government Veterinary Authority (in accordance with the DAPH approval).
 - d. Test reports
 - e. Commercial Invoice.
 - f. Packing list
- ❖ All the relevant documents of the consignment are checked by the Animal Quarantine officers and when the requirements are fulfilled, the consignment is registered at the Quarantine Office.
1. Physical Inspection by Animal Quarantine Officers and Animal Quarantine inspectors at the port of entry.
 2. Samples will be collected at the Airport
 3. Animals will be subjected to quarantine for a period of 14 days and during that period animals will be subjected to testing and treatment.
 4. If any noncompliance occurs during that period, the quarantine period will be extended.
 5. Final releasement of the consignment from the Animal Quarantine, when all the requirements are fulfilled.