

1. Pre export clinical examination has to be done by a government approved veterinarian; Animal has to be found to be free from any clinical signs of infectious /contagious diseases and free from external parasites before exportation.